

Hello Everyone,

We are excited to announce our partnership with Grupio to provide you a unique mobile experience at the SED 2014 Conference. Download the mobile app and access information about our event from the convenience of your mobile device. Access the schedule, speakers, search for specific papers in the program, and “star” your preferred sessions to create a custom program. Moreover, once you download the schedule, all the information is available offline (i.e., on airplane mode).

Networking has never been this easy. From within the app, find other attendees and private messages with them!

Download instructions -

iPhone - Search for “Grupio” on the App Store.

iPad - Search for “Grupio Pro” on the App Store.

Android - Search for “Grupio” on Android Market.

Blackberry Storm and Torch - Search for “Grupio” on App World.

After you download the app, search for “SED 2014.”

Others - Access our Mobile website at <https://www.grupio.com/8549567385>

Hope you enjoy the mobile app and do not forget to give us feedback!

Best regards,

Marina Azzimonti and Veronica Guerrieri
